

Irwin R Crandall

Ida Lewis

Rene B. Crandall

Rene B. Crandall, pioneer and long-time Las Vegas resident, died August 30, 1989, due to complications following surgery. She was born in Helper, Utah, March 22, 1903. She was raised in Helper, Utah and attended St. Mary's Academy in Salt Lake City. She and her husband, Irwin R. Crandall, of Springville, were married in Provo on May 21, 1924. They resided there from 1924 until 1933 when they moved to Las Vegas. They have resided in Las Vegas since that time.

Mr. Crandall established the Crandall Insurance Agency and they were both active in business and civic affairs until their retirement several years ago. Mrs. Crandall participated in many early Las Vegas community affairs and was a member of the Mesquite Club.

Mrs. Crandall was preceded in death by a daughter, Phyllis Rae Crandall. She is survived by her husband, I.R. "Cy" Crandall, and three daughters: Patricia Lee, Las Vegas; Dorene C. Mason and Diane Coulthard Kneeland, Sun Valley, ID; one brother, Frank Berger, Ogden; one sister, Alice Dillsaver, Petaluma, CA; 11 grandchildren and 8 great-grandchildren.

Graveside services were in the Evergreen Cemetery.

Julie Crandall, daughter of Robert W. and LaRae F. Crandall, received her Bachelor of Science degree in Early Childhood Education at Brigham Young University on August 18, 1989. She is a member of the Omnicron Nu Honor Society and is presently teaching kindergarten at Westside Elementary in Springville.

I.R. "Cy" = L R Crandal

Cy Crandal

I.R. "Cy" Crandal, 91, died at his home in Springville, Saturday, Sept. 9, 1989.

He was born March 27, 1898, in Springville. He married Rene Bergera, May 21, 1924. She died Aug. 30, 1989.

He attended Springville High School and graduated from Utah State Agricultural College in Logan. He served in the U.S. Army in World War I, 1917-1918.

He lived in Provo from 1924 until 1933 when he moved to Las Vegas, Nev., and has lived there since then.

He established the Crandal Insurance Agency and was active in civic and business affairs until his retirement a few years ago.

He was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Kiwanis Club, Elks Club, Chamber of Commerce and was a 60-year member of the American Legion.

He served as director of the Clark County Civil Defense during World War II and the Korean Conflict. He served as a special consultant to the Federal Civil Defense Administration in conjunction with testing at Frenchmen Flats with the Atomic Energy Commission.

He was an active member of the Clark County School Board for two terms. He was an avid hunter, fisherman and golfer. He was instrumental in the building of the Las Vegas Municipal Golf Course and was an original member of the Desert Inn Country Club.

He is survived by three daughters: Patricia Lee, Dorene C. Mason, Diane Coulthard Kneeland, all of Las Vegas; 11 grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren; two sisters, Rilla C. Embree, Portland, Ore.; Louise C. Snow, Springville. He was preceded in death by his wife, and a daughter, Phyllis Rae Crandal.

Funeral was today at Red Rock Palm Mortuary, Las Vegas. Graveside services will be Wednesday, 2 p.m. at the Evergreen Cemetery in Springville.

Contributions may be made to the University of Nevada Las Vegas Library.

Karl Kent Crandall

CENTREVILLE, Utah—Karl Kent Crandall, age 86, died peacefully on January 3, 1991 at Lakeview Hospital in Bountiful, Utah of causes incident to his age. His loving wife and children were at his side.

He was born October 23, 1904 in Springville, Utah to Myron E. (Jr.) and Eva Maeser Crandall. He married his hometown sweetheart, Vesta Anderson on February 13, 1930 in the Salt Lake LDS temple and they celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary last Valentine's Day.

An outstanding student, he earned his undergraduate degree at BYU and his MBA at New York University in the 1920's. Starting as a junior clerk for the old Utah Oil Refining Company (UORCO) in Salt Lake during the early depression, he retired 39 years later as a senior-level marketing executive for American Oil.

During his AMOCO career, he was deeply involved in a variety of community service drives and organizations.

A devoted member of the LDS Church throughout his life, he fulfilled a variety of teaching and leadership positions, most recently as a High Priest in the Centerville 13th Ward. Blessed with a sharp mind in an active body, he has long enjoyed good, hearty games, drinking, and sports.

Charles, a loving and crossword puzzle. He grandchild, and great-grandchildren will miss his quick wit.

He is survived by his wife, Vesta; three children, John K. (Ruby) Crandall, Bountiful; Ann Wynn Bountiful; Richard K. Crandall, Salt Lake City; brothers and sister, M. Moeser Crandall, Albuquerque, New Mexico; Gordon (Lulu) Crandall, Salt Lake City; and V. A. (Zelda) Crandall, Provo; and Lowell W. (Beih) Crandall, Bountiful. 12 grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services Saturday, January 5, at 2 p.m., Centerville 13th Ward, 950 North Main Street. Friends may call at the Larkin Mortuary, 260 East South Temple, on Friday evening 6-8 p.m. 12-45-145 in the funeral home. Burial, Wasatch Lawn Memorial Park.

NT 1/4

N3 1/5